

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1847.

eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter three hundred and forty-nine, therefore, in order to remove said doubts, and also more effectually to secure the benefits proposed by the said act, CHAP. 277.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of Baltimore county in making out the levy of State and county taxes for the year eighteen hundred and forty seven, and for each succeeding year thereafter, shall levy upon the assessable property of said county, on or before the first day of February eighteen hundred and forty-eight, and in each and every year thereafter, six per centum upon the amount of said State and county taxes, to defray the expenses of collecting the same. To levy 6 per cent. for collecting.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer and clerk of said county shall be allowed until the first day of March in each and every year to make out the tax bills, and shall be required to make his payments to the Treasurer of Maryland, of all amounts received by him under the provisions of the said act of December session eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter three hundred and forty-nine, on account of the State direct tax, on the twentieth day of each month, in each and every year. When payments of State tax are to be made.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the sheriff of Baltimore county shall be required to complete the collection of the arrears of taxes placed in his hands under the provisions of the third section of the act to which this is a supplement, within six months after such arrears are so placed in his hands, and he shall make his payments to the Treasurer of Maryland of all State taxes collected by him monthly, on the twentieth day of each and every month, and all taxes not paid to the Treasurer of the county as authorised by said law, shall bear interest from the last day of December of the year in which they are made payable to the said treasurer of the county. When collections, and payments are to be made.

SEC. 4 And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the day of the passage thereof, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed. Inconsistent acts repealed.

*This Bill is printed as passed, differing from the Engrossed Bill in which an error was committed by Engrossing Clerk. Ed.
