

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1847.

Thomas Hodges and Mrs. McGruder until it intersects the divisional line between primary school districts numbers nine and ten, thence with said line to the Patuxent river, and with said river to the place of beginning. CHAP. 279.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That three trustees for said district hereby laid off and numbered fifty-one shall be appointed at a general meeting of the inhabitants thereof authorised to vote under the constitution of the State for members of the legislature, due notice of which signed by one of the commissioners of primary schools for Anne Arundel county, shall be given at least ten days prior thereto, and set up at two of the most public places within the limits of said district. Trustees—how elected.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for said trustees to regulate and fix the tuition money for the admission of pupils at said school, having due regard to the ability of the parents or guardians of the children who may apply for admission to said school to pay the same, and that they be authorised and required, when the parent or guardian is unable to pay anything for the education of his child or children, to admit such child or children into said school free from charge, and that they be also required to admit in like manner to said school all children who have no means of educating themselves, and who are without parents or guardians. To regulate admission of pupils.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That said trustees be and they are hereby authorised to receive into the school established in said district, any child or children who may not live in said district, upon such terms as they may prescribe; provided, that in the opinion of said trustees the interest of the pupils within the district will not be prejudiced. May admit children living
out of the district.
Proviso.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That with the exception of the power to lay a district tax upon the assessable property of said school district, which power is hereby expressly inhibited, the inhabitants of said district shall have and enjoy all such benefits and privileges as are now afforded by law to the inhabitants of the other school districts of Anne Arundel county. To have same rights as other districts.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted That all acts of Assembly or parts of acts which are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. Inconsistent acts repealed.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into operation from and after its passage. In force.