

CHAP. 282. Lusby and John Gray, thence with the division line between said Gray and Richard S. Thomas, thence with the division line between R. S. Thomas and Colonel Joseph Wickes until it intersects the main road leading to Worton Heights, thence by and with said road to the division line between Mrs. Mary Thomas and the property of the late Richard Graves, thence with said division line until it reaches the land of William Stevens, thence with the division line between Mrs. Thomas and William Stevens until it intersects the main road at Witchcoats run, thence by and with said main road to Belle-Air, thence with the main road to the line between the land of Colonel Wickes and James Brown, thence with the division line between Colonel Wickes and James Brown and thence with the division line between Bullen and Appleton, thence with the division line between Emory Sudler and Edwin R. Carville, thence with the division line between E. Sudler and John F. Ringgold, thence with the division line between J. T. Freeman and Emory Sudler, thence with the division line between J. T. Freeman and the heirs of Duncan Stone until it intersects the main road, thence by and with said road to Perkins' mill the place of beginning.

Inhabitants to elect trustees—their duties

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the taxable inhabitants within the limits of said district, shall meet as soon as practicable after the passage of this act in some convenient place in said district, of which proper notice shall be given, and elect five trustees to manage the concerns of said school district, and who shall have all the powers and privileges, and perform all the duties now required of trustees of similar schools, and that all laws relating to primary schools in Kent county shall be applicable to said school; provided, that no tax shall be laid upon the inhabitants of said district to erect a school house.

Levy directed

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the levy court be empowered and required to levy upon the assessable property of Kent county, as now required by law, one hundred and fifty dollars annually, for the benefit of said school.

CHAPTER 282.

Passed
March 9, 1848.

An act to incorporate the Baltimore Mining Company.

Incorporated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That W. L. Helfenstein, Abelard Guthrie