

CHAP. 45. they are hereby authorised and required, to levy upon the assessable property of Baltimore county, annually, the sum of twenty dollars, for the use of William Spencer, and to cause the same to be collected and paid to the said William Spencer, or his order, as the case may be, semi-annually, in the same manner that other out-pensioners are now paid by the trustees of the poor for Baltimore county, any other law, custom or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 45.

Passed Feb. 2, 1848. An act entitled, a further supplement to the act entitled, an act to establish Primary Schools in Prince George's county, passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, chapter sixty-one.

General board of trustees to appoint local boards—duties of the latter.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the general board of the primary schools of Prince George's county, or a majority thereof, and they are hereby empowered to appoint at any of their regular meetings, three sensible and discreet men in each of the school districts of said county, being patrons, or taxable inhabitants of said school districts, respectively, as local trustees of said schools; and to fill up, from time to time, all vacancies that may happen among said local trustees from deaths, resignations or otherwise, and it shall be the duty of said local trustees to visit said schools respectively quarterly, or oftener if necessary, to supervise generally the manner in which said schools are conducted, to appoint and remove teachers, subject to the right of appeal to the general board of trustees, as now provided for by law, and to report under oath at least once a year to the said general board of trustees, the manner in which said teachers have conducted said schools, the number of scholars attending the same, and the punctuality with which said teachers have discharged their duties, and said local trustees shall conduct all examinations of the scholars in said schools whenever held, and report their progress to the said general board of trustees.

No extra allowance to be made.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any primary school teacher in said county to re-
