

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1847.

CHAP. 283.

and such of the stockholders as shall be present at said meeting or a majority of them shall be empowered to elect a president and four directors to manage the affairs of said company for one year and until a new election of president and directors shall be had, and every stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for every share of stock he may own.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the president and directors shall have power to regulate the time, place and manner of holding the election of president and directors, which election shall be held annually, and they may make and adopt all other regulations which they may deem necessary and proper for the benefit and advantage of said company; provided nevertheless, that said company shall not be authorised or empowered to levy a higher amount of toll on any description of travel on said road than is chargeable under the regulations of law by the Cumberland and Somerset Turnpike Road Company.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said company be and they are hereby authorised to cut, dig and make a turnpike road from the Pennsylvania line, on the farm of John M. Buchanan, thence down the Valley of Wills' creek, by the best and most practicable route to the Cumberland and Somerset Turnpike Road, at the toll gate near Jennings' run, said road is not to exceed sixty feet in width, and so much of the said road shall be regularly graded and paved with stone so as to conform as near as may be to the grading and paving of the Cumberland and Somerset Turnpike road, before proceeding with the construction of said road the president and directors shall obtain the consent of owners of the land through which the said turnpike road shall pass, or if the voluntary consent of any owner or owners of land through which said turnpike road shall pass cannot be obtained, then the said president and directors shall proceed to obtain the right of way in the same manner as is prescribed in the act of incorporation of the Cumberland and Somerset Turnpike Road Company.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That said president and directors be and they are hereby authorised and empowered whenever they shall have said road finished and in good travelling condition, to erect such number of gates and employ such number of toll collectors as they may deem necessary and proper for the advantage of the company and the convenience of the public, but in no event shall they be authorised to demand or receive a Duty of Directors.

Proviso

Authority to make road.

To erect toll gates and to charge toll.