

CHAP. 292.

Banking for bid.

In force.

Right of other companies to cross road.Not exempt from taxation.

Reservation.

Duties of directors.Passed.
March 1, 1848.Commissioners to open and grade street.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this act nor no part thereof shall be so construed as to give to the said company any banking privileges, or any right to issue any bank note or notes, or certificates of deposit payable to bearer, or small notes for circulation of any kind whatever.

SEC. 9. Be it enacted, That this act shall commence and be in force from and after the passage thereof, and shall be subject to all the provisions of the act of December session eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, chapter two hundred and sixty-seven, entitled, an act prescribing general regulations for the incorporation of manufacturing and mining companies.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That any company hereafter formed shall have the privilege of passing over the lands of said Alexandria Mining Company, so as to connect any lateral rail road with the rail road or roads of said Alexandria Mining Company, by paying said company such sum or sums as may be agreed upon by three disinterested persons appointed by the commissioners of the tax of Allegany county to value said damage or damages.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to exempt the lands and other property of said company from taxation.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the right is hereby expressly reserved to the General Assembly of Maryland at its pleasure to alter or repeal this act of incorporation.

CHAPTER 292.

An act to extend the Street leading from the Chester Bridge in Chestertown, until it intersects the road leading to Washington College.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George S. Holliday, James Mansfield and John L. Stam be and they are hereby appointed commissioners with full power and authority to open, extend and grade the street leading from the bridge over Chester river until it intersects the road leading to Washington College, and that they assess the damages which shall be sustained by the owners respectively of the premises through which said street shall pass, after taking into