

CHAP. 313. capital stock of said company to such extent as shall be deemed sufficient to accomplish the work, and receive subscriptions on the original terms as before provided for in the second, third and fourth sections of this act.

To put up
mile stones—
penalty for de-facing.

SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That the said company shall cause milestones to be placed at the side of said roads, beginning at the distance of one mile from the southern end of the road, and extending thence to the termination of the said road, whereon shall be marked in plain legible characters the number of miles which each stone is distant from Mechanicstown or the point where the said road connects with the Frederick and Emmitsburg Turnpike Road, and if any person shall wilfully destroy the said milestones or deface the same, or shall without the permission of the acting superintendents of the said road, throw out upon the road and suffer to remain for the space of one day any mould, dirt or rubbish of any kind, such person being convicted thereof by the evidence of one or more credible witnesses and disinterested ones before any justice of the peace of Frederick or Washington county, as the case may be, he or she shall be judged by the said justices to pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars, to be recovered with costs, which fine shall when recovered be paid to the treasurer of the company for the use of said company.

Not to obstruct road—penalty.

SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That all wagoners and drivers of carriages of all kinds, whether of burden or pleasure, using the said road shall, except when passing by a carriage of slower draught, keep their horses and carriages to the right hand of said road in passing direction, leaving the other side of the road free and clear for other carriages to pass and re-pass, and if any driver shall offend against this provision he shall forfeit and pay not exceeding ten dollars to any person who shall be obstructed in his passage and will warrant for the same to be recovered with costs before any justice in the same manner as debts under ten dollars are recoverable, and all fines and forfeitures imposed by this act not exceeding ten pounds shall be recoverable before any justice in the same manner as debts under ten dollars are recoverable.

Dividends—
how and when declared.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That the president and managers of said company shall keep a just and true account of all monies received by their respective toll gatherers at their several and respective gates on said road, which account shall be upon oath or affirmation