

1847.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 316.

CHAPTER 315.

Passed
Mar. 10, 1848.

An act to allow Jesse J. Dalrymple, administrator of James A. D. Dalrymple, further time to collect the fees due to the said James A. D. Dalrymple, late Register of Wills of Calvert County.

Authorised to collect.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jesse J. Dalrymple, administrator of James A. D. Dalrymple, be and he is hereby authorised to collect all fees or balances of fees due to the said James A. D. Dalrymple as register of wills for Calvert county, until the first day of January eighteen hundred and fifty.

CHAPTER 316.

Passed
Mar. 10, 1848.

*A supplement to the act passed at the present session of the Legislature, and entitled, an act to reduce the number of Justices of the Peace in and for the City of Baltimore, to change the mode of compensating them, and for other purposes.

Governor to appoint.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That His Excellency the Governor, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered, at his discretion, in addition to the number of justices of the peace directed to be appointed by the act to which this is a supplement, to appoint and commission an additional number not exceeding four, which in his judgment the exigencies of the people of the city of Baltimore may require, which said additional justices of the peace, when so appointed and commissioned, shall be subject in every respect to the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement.

In force from passage.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect on the day after the day of its passage, and shall relate exclusively to the city of Baltimore.

*This Bill is printed as passed, differing from the Engrossed Bill, in which an error was committed by Engrossing Clerk. Ed.
