

CHAP. 326. from the commissioners of the town of Easton—Therefore,

Declared to be a public road. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the road leading from the town of Easton, in Talbot county, to Easton Point be and the same is hereby declared to be a public road of Talbot county, and as such subject as other public roads in said county to the control and direction of the commissioners of Talbot county, to be kept in order and preservation as other public roads in said county.

Wharf to be under control of the county commissioners. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the wharf at Easton Point now under control of the commissioners of the town of Easton, be and the same is hereby declared to be subject to the order, control, management and direction of the commissioners of Talbot county, Inconsistent acts repealed. In force. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all acts inconsistent with or repugnant to this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 326.

Passed Mar. 10, 1843. An act for the relief of the heirs of Rebecca C. Morris, of Howard District.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the children and heirs at law of Rebecca C. Morris, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, are entitled to an undivided interest of one-sixth in and to certain real estate in the State of Tennessee, described in the return of commissioners appointed by the circuit court of said State for Shelby county, and now in file in the office of said court in said county, as lot number three hundred and seventy-four, in the town of Memphis, and county lot number five, of a tract of land called Race Track, both of which were allotted by said court to Rebecca Willing, who intermarried with James Morris; and whereas, part of said property, to wit: lot number three hundred and seventy-four is said to have been sold for taxes; and whereas, said property being unimproved and yielding no interest, and imposing a yearly tax on the means of said children which they can ill afford, it has been asked of this legislature by James Morris, father of said children, and guardian, by his petition that authority shall be given to him to sell and dispose of said property and invest the proceeds in some profita-