Subscriptions
—how taken. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the president and directors of said company shall be authorised to receive additional subscriptions to their capital stock as provided by the first section of this act, at such times and places as they or a majority of them may designate.

CHAPTER 332.

Passed
Mar. 10, 1848. An act to lay out and establish a road in Allegany county.

Commissioners named. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a subscription may be opened for a capital of ten thousand dollars, in shares of ten dollars each, and that Charles Edward Cunningham, John Ogg and Nelson Beall, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners for that purpose, with power and authority to open books for subscription at such times and places as to said commissioners may seem most convenient and proper, and as soon as three hundred and fifty shares of said stock shall have been taken, it shall be the duty of said commissioners to make out a list of the names of the subscribers thereto, showing the number of shares subscribed by each, and return the same to the clerk of Allegany county court, who is hereby authorised and directed to record the same among the land records of said county, an attested copy of said records, under the hand of said clerk and seal of his office, to be in all cases sufficient evidence of said subscription.

General meetings. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That as soon as said three hundred and fifty shares shall be subscribed, the said commissioners or any two of them may call a meeting of said subscribers, after not less than four weeks notice of the time and place of said meeting shall have been given in some newspaper published in Cumberland, and the subscribers assembled in consequence of such notice shall choose by ballot from among themselves by a majority of the votes of such as may be present in person or by proxy, each subscriber to have one vote for every share of stock, five directors for the term of one year thereafter, and on the same day annually thereafter a
