

CHAP. 332. of the Baltimore and Ohio rail road, not far from the mouth of Crabb Tree creek, along the ravine or valley of the north fork of Savage river, in as straight a line as the nature of the country will admit, to the point of junction of Elk Lick run with said north fork of the Savage, the said road not to be located through any building, garden, yard or orchard without the consent of the owner thereof, and to be laid out at least thirty-five feet wide, to be ditched on both sides and thrown up in the centre in such manner as to secure a firm, and as near as possible, an even surface rising towards the middle of a gradual arch, and to be made so nearly level in its progress as that it shall in no place rise or fall more than will form an angle of six degrees with a horizontal line, the same thereafter to be maintained and kept in good order and repair, good and substantial bridges or culverts to be erected by said president and directors over all the water courses that said road may cross and to be kept also in good order and repair.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That said president and directors may adopt such rules and bye-laws as may be necessary to carry into effect the object of this act, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State, shall have full power and authority to appoint and employ such officers and laborers as they may find necessary to execute the purposes of this act, and it shall be the duty of said president and directors, after they shall have finished said road, to return the courses and bounds thereof to the clerk of Allegany county court, to be by him recorded at the expense of said corporation.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the several sums subscribed as aforesaid shall be paid in such manner and at such times and places as said president and directors shall direct, and if any subscriber shall fail in making payment when called for as aforesaid, within sixty days of the time limited therefor, he shall be liable to forfeit, if the possessor of one share, the said share so subscribed, as also all monies paid on account thereof, if the subscriber shall be the holder of more than one share, he shall be entitled to hold and retain as many shares as the sums of money paid and advanced by him will pay for the remaining shares, as also the surplus money advanced or paid, if insufficient to pay for an additional share, shall be liable to be forfeited by said president and directors for the use of the other stockholders, and if any of the subscribers aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to make such payments as may be called for as aforesaid within the time limited as afore-