

Chap. Sec.

BALTIMORE COUNTY—

of the act of 1830, chapter 70, as limits the number of books &c., to be made, of transactions in the Orphan's Court of, repealed,

122

Certain collectors in, allowed further time to complete their collections, &c.,

142

In any suit, &c., arising ex delicto, in Court of, which may now or hereafter be pending, &c., in which suggestion in writing of any party, supported by affidavit, that a fair trial cannot be had, &c. when suit is on county docket, or when on city docket, Judges to admit such suit &c., to be transferred to one of city docket if it be on county docket, and if on city docket, &c., to one of county docket, to be heard at the next term, &c.,

146

1^o

To take effect from passage, and all acts in contravention, &c., repealed,

"

2

Act to establish public schools, in &c.,

187

Act supplemental to the act of 1826, chap. 217, to provide for electing commissioners and prescribing duties, &c., three commissioners to be elected by the people, &c.,

223

1

Manner of electing commissioners proscribed, &c.

"

2

In voting for commissioners, it shall be by general vote of the whole county, confining, nevertheless, the residence of each to commissioners district, &c., the person having the highest number of votes, to be elected for three years, the next highest for two years, and next highest for one year, their places to be supplied by the annual election of one commissioner in like manner, &c.,

"

3

If an equal number of votes be given to two or more as commissioners, judges of election to determine election by lot, and certify said proceedings in their return, and if any commissioner die, &c. Governor to order election to fill vacancy, giving at least twenty days notice, election to be by a vote of the whole