

years, next after the rendering such return to call in question the adjudication of the commissioners, the marking and bounding such road, or portion of it as aforesaid, and the plat and record thereof, shall be conclusive evidence of the original location thereof, both as to the direction and termination of the lines, or if the adjudication of the commissioners shall be confirmed by a verdict of a jury in any suit as aforesaid, the adjudication of the commissioners in the point confirmed by the jury, and between the same parties, and those claiming under them, shall conclude to any and every intent and purpose; provided, that every infant, married woman, insane person, or person in prison, or beyond sea, and those claiming under either of them, shall have five years after the disability removed to commence their suit or action aforesaid; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to affect the right, title or claim of any person, who may have built, or may own any house or part of any house or houses within the limits of said road, and the said buildings, or such parts thereof as may be within the limits aforesaid, shall always be considered to be the property of the owner or owners thereof so claiming, so long as the said buildings shall be kept in habitable repair.

CHAP. 61.

Provisoes.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That in all cases where post and rail fences have been obtruded by the adjoining proprietors of lands upon the bed of the road, and it shall appear to the jury that such fences were innocently placed there, and without a knowledge of the intrusion, then the company and the owners of the fences shall bear in equal proportions the expense of removing them to the proper lines.

In cases of obstructions innocently placed.

CHAPTER 61.

An act to extend the time of Tobias Cover, former collector of taxes for Carroll county, to enable him to complete his collections.

Passed. Feb. 9, 1848.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the time allowed Tobias Cover, former collector of county taxes for Carroll county, be and the same is hereby extended to the first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty-nine.

Time extended to collect.