

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1847.

CHAPTER 63.

CHAP. 64.

An act to change the location of M alley in the city of Baltimore.

Passed
Feb. 9, 1848.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the owners of the lots on the north side of M alley in the city of Baltimore, to include within the lines of their respective lots, extending southwardly, all that part of the bed of said alley which is not required for the bed of said M alley, as located and defined in the second section of this act. Owners of lots to include, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That instead of M alley as now located, an alley of the same name, four feet wide, extending from L alley eastwardly, to the eastern boundary of the estate of the late Colonel John E. Howard, the south side of said alley being distant one hundred feet from the north side of Hamilton street, and running parallel therewith, be and the same is hereby condemned and made public, and subjected to all the laws and ordinances of this State and the city of Baltimore, relative to streets, lanes and alleys within the said city; provided, that the said lot owners or some of them, shall file, or cause to be filed in the office of the register of the city of Baltimore, a plat of the said alley, accurately describing it by metes and bounds, by the name of M alley, and shall also file therewith the assent in writing, of all the owners of property binding on both sides of said alley, to the alteration in said alley hereby provided for. Alley bounded Proviso.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall be inoperative until it shall have received the assent of the Mayor and city council of Baltimore. To receive assent of Mayor and city council.

CHAPTER 64.

An act to divorce Sarah Ann Gaines, from her husband John B. Gaines, of the City of Baltimore.

Passed
Feb. 11, 1848.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sarah Ann Gaines, be henceforth divorced from her husband John B. Gaines of the city of Baltimore, and the marriage heretofore had and solemnized between them, is declared to be henceforth and forever Divorced.