

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1847.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, the provisions of any law relating to the criminal jurisdiction of the county courts of this State, shall extend to Baltimore city court, although said court be not named therein.

CHAP. 68.
Also given to Baltimore city court.

CHAPTER 67.

An act for the relief of Daniel Sprigg of the City of Baltimore. Passed Feb. 11, 1848.

WHEREAS, it appears by an affidavit of Daniel Sprigg of the city of Baltimore, recorded among the records of Baltimore county court, that said Sprigg, on the fifteenth of September, eighteen hundred and forty-five, introduced into the State of Maryland, from Fairfax county, in the State of Virginia, a negro woman, a slave for life, named Maria; and whereas, said affidavit should in conformity with the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, chapter fifteen, entitled, an act entitled, a further supplement to an act relating to free negroes and slaves, have been filed with the clerk of Baltimore county court within thirty days after the removal of said slave into this State; and whereas, through inadvertence said affidavit was not in fact filed with the said clerk until the first day of January eighteen hundred and forty-six, after the expiration of said thirty days from the removal of said slave into this State—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said affidavit shall be taken and held to have the same effect to all intents and purposes, as if it had been filed within the time required by law; provided, all the other requisites of the said act of eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, chapter fifteen, have been or shall be complied with.

An act for the benefit of Letty Meyers. Passed Feb. 11, 1848.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whereas, Simon Pinkson, a colored
