

TREASURER—To pay to William Scott, balance of pension due E. Scott, at the time of her death,	11
—To Elizabeth Beall, the sum due Mary Greentree, at the time of her death,	14
—To J. W. Hall, $25 for services as page to the House of Delegates,	15
—To Robert Booker $50, for arresting John Roberts, the murderer of John Cox, &c.,	20
—To certain witnesses before the committee on inspections, &c.,	21
—To Christian Keener, attorney for Walter McPherson, executor of Mark McPherson, eighty dollars, the amount due, a revolutionary pensioner, at the time of death, &c.,	23
—To James G. Gregory, & Company, $3,397.92, with interest from 9th December 1841, &c.,	24
—To refund to Samuel Lyday, $7.26, &c.	25
—To pay to William Wells, the amount due Barbara Russell, a revolutionary pensioner, at the time of her death,	26
—To refund certain taxes on ground rents, &c.,	27
—To pay to Priscilla Jackson, eight dollars, due Elizabeth Frazier, a revolutionary pensioner, at the time of her death,	28
—To the Governor $625 for furnishing the executive chamber,	30
—To pay (after the payment of the interest on the public debt and ordinary expenses of the government,) to the visitors and governors of Washington college, fifteen hundred dollars annually, in addition,	31
—To Charles A. Buchanan $7.50 for tax erroneously charged to and paid by him, &c.	32
—To the members of the legislature and officers one day's per diem for expenses in attending the funeral of ex-President Adams,	33