

1847.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 73.

CHAPTER 72.

Passed
Feb. 11, 1848.

An act supplemental to an act passed December session eighteen hundred and thirty-three, chapter two hundred and forty-four, for the incorporation of Livingston Academy.

Number of trustees reduced, and named

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the number of trustees of Livingston Academy, in Baltimore county, shall consist of only five; which five trustees shall be George W. McConkey, Edward Rider, Lewis Roberts, Senior, Amos Matthews and Nathan H. Ware, all of said county, and named in the original law to which this is a supplement.

Corporate powers vested.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, The said five trustees, and their successors, shall have all the corporate powers, privileges and immunities granted in the original law to which this is a supplement, and incur all the responsibilities and liabilities under the said original act imposed for the government and management of said academy, or for any other purposes required by said original act.

CHAPTER 73.

Passed
Feb. 11, 1848.

An additional supplement to an act entitled: an act to provide for the public instruction of youths in primary schools throughout this State, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, chapter one hundred and sixty-two, and its several supplements, so far as it relates to Frederick county.

Trustees to be guilty of a misdemeanor for neglect, &c

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act each and every trustee of a primary school in Frederick county, appointed or elected in virtue of the said act, and its supplements, remaining in possession of any primary school funds, received in the manner expressed in the first section of the act of the General Assembly of December session, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter one hundred and fifty-four, and neglecting or refusing to comply with the provisions of said first section of said act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-five, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.