

CHAP. 77. fice of the clerk of Baltimore county court his, the said justices, bond in the penalty of two thousand dollars, with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the judges of Baltimore county court, and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as justice of the peace, and his compliance with the provisions of this act.

Districts to be designated in commission.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the Governor, at the time of appointing and commissioning the said justices shall, in the commission of each justice, respectively, designate the district within which he shall hold his place of official business, and the districts and number of justices for each district, shall be as follows, that is to say: for all that part of the city aforesaid, lying within the first, second, third and fourth wards of said city, as at present divided, three justices of the peace; for all that part of said city lying within the fifth, sixth, seventh and eight wards of the said city, three justices of the peace; for all that part of the said city lying within the ninth, tenth, eleventh and thirteenth wards, four justices; for all that part of said city lying within the twelfth, fourteenth, nineteenth and twentieth wards, three justices; and for all that part of said city lying within the fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth wards, three justices of the peace; and for the convenience of persons living in the city of Baltimore, it is hereby made the duty of the said justices to hold their places of official business in the most convenient business places within the district which may be designated as aforesaid in their said commission; provided always, that nothing herem contained, shall be so taken or construed as to take from the territorial jurisdiction now allowed to justices of the peace in and for the city of Baltimore, but the same shall be as full and as ample in all respects as though the places for the transaction of their official business were not designated as herein provided.

Proviso.

Compensation

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That in lieu of all fees and emoulements whatsoever now authorised and allowed to justices of the peace, in and for the city of Baltimore, the justices of the peace appointed under and by the provisions of this act, shall each receive the annual salary or compensation of one thousand dollars, to be paid quarterly in even and equal instalments, by the register of the city of Baltimore; provided always, that should the amount of fees returned by the said sixteen justices as aforesaid, at the time of making said quarterly payments, not amount in the aggregate to a sum sufficient to pay the said justices at the rate of one thou-
