

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1849.

trustee to make such sale, who shall be clothed with CHAP. 123. all the powers thereof, upon his complying with such terms as the said court shall prescribe.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall be in force, in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 123.

An act to change the division line between the First and Seventh Election Districts of Prince George's county. Passed Feb. 9 1850.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Boundaries prescribed
That from and after the passage of this act, the boundary line between the first and seventh election districts of Prince George's county, shall be altered, and that the following be and is hereby made the boundary line between the same, beginning at the mouth of a stream called the Horsepen branch, on the west bank of the big Patuxent river, and thence westerly with said stream to the farm or plantation of Mrs. Walter Bowie, and thence southerly in a direct line to a place known as Hickory Hill, on the road between the farms or plantations of Mrs. Walter Bowie and Richard W. Isaacs, and thence with said road to its point of junction with the main or public road within and on the farm or plantation of Dr. Thomas McGill, near the Chapel, and thence westerly with said road to its point of junction with the public or main road, within and on the farm or plantation of Mrs. Mary McGruder, and now the boundary line, in part, between said district; and those citizens of Prince George's county, who live in the first election district of said county, as altered by this act, shall vote where the polls are or may be held in said first election district, and those residing in the seventh election district of said county, as altered by this act, shall vote where the polls are or may be held in said seventh election district.