

CHAP. 153. dent and directors thereof, shall be and they are hereby invested with all singular the rights, powers, privileges, authority and advantages, for the surveying, locating, establishing, constructing and making a rail road or rail roads, and all necessary appurtenances, from any of the mines or property, or from any point or place of the property or land of said company, or to, or from any other place in Allegany county, which the Baltimore and Ohio rail road passes, by virtue of the act by which said company has been incorporated, and its several supplements, and that all the powers therein given to said Baltimore and Ohio rail road company, are hereby given, granted and secured to the said president and directors of the Westernport Coal Company, as fully and particularly as if the same were herein severally reported; and that for transporting passengers and receiving toll on said rail road, the said company shall be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to charge the same as the Mount Savage Coal and Iron company, in Allegany county, named by an act passed in eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, chapter fifty-seven.

Banking forbid SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to authorise said company to issue any note, token, scrip or other evidence of debt, to be used as currency.

In force. SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall endure for seventy years from its passage, and the Legislature hereby expressly reserves the right to alter or annul this act of incorporation at pleasure.

CHAPTER 153.

Passed Feb. 14. 1850. An act to Incorporate the Swanton Coal and Iron Company.

Incorporated, &c. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Swan, Charles F. B. Swan, Robert Swan, and William Price, and all and every person who shall become associated with them in the manner hereinafter prescribed, shall be and they are hereby incorporated, by the name of the Swanton Iron and Coal Company, and as such, shall have succession, and may have and use a common seal, and be able and capable to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court of law or equity, and may also have, use, exercise and enjoy all the powers, privileges, and rights,