

in Frederick county, that the school house and premises belonging to said district, are located so far from a central position, that numbers of the smaller children are subjected to great inconvenience, if not entirely deprived of the advantages contemplated by this noble institution—Therefore, CHAP. 172.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Authority to sell
That Joshua Daub, Albert Ritchie, and Thomas Haller, trustees of primary school number seventy-one, and their successors, be and they are hereby authorised, to sell, dispose of, and convey, the real estate belonging to primary school district, number seventy-one, and to purchase, procure, or build a school house elsewhere within the limits of said district, as in their judgment they may think best, any law or laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 172.

An act to authorise the Judges of the Orphan's Court of Frederick County, to pass an order for the payment of certain money to the Trustees of the Alms House of Frederick County. Passed Feb 22, 1850.

WHEREAS, a certain Leo Sowers, a lunatic and pauper, who has been an inmate of the alms house of Frederick county for many years, has become entitled by bequest, to the sum of forty-four dollars and thirty-five cents, which was paid into the hands of the register of wills of Frederick county, and is now deposited in the Fredericktown Savings Institution, subject to the order of the orphan's court of Frederick county. Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Orphans court to pass order
That the justices of the orphans court of Frederick county, be and they are hereby authorised, empowered, and directed, to pass an order for the payment to the trustees of the alms house of Frederick county, the said sum of forty-four dollars and thirty-five cents, and the interest thereon accrued, deposited in the Fredericktown Savings Institution, for the use of the said Leo Sowers, in the name of the register of wills of Frederick county, and subject to their order, to be applied by the said trustees of the alms house of Frederick county, to the support and maintenance of the said Leo Sowers.