

member thereof shall on that account, if he be not a party to such suit in his individual capacity, be incompetent as a witness. CHAP. 174.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any married woman, with the assent of her husband, signified by his signature to the application for insurance, to apply for and have insurance in said company on the property of said married woman, and that the premium note given by such married woman and her husband shall be a lien upon the real estate so insured, and shall be as binding and effectual upon her as if she were a feme sole and unmarried. Married women may insure with assent of husband

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force and take effect as soon as the same shall be accepted by the said company through its board of directors, and that the act entitled, an act supplementary to an act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-two, chapter two hundred and fourteen, passed at the present session of the General Assembly, be and the same is hereby repealed. When to go into operation.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That nothing in the original act to which this is an additional supplement, shall be construed to exempt the premium notes from State taxes. Not exempted from taxation.

CHAPTER 174.

An act entitled, an act supplementary to an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter fifty-one. Passed Feb 27, 1850.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of the poor of Baltimore county, be allowed one dollar each per day, and five cents a mile, going to and from, for such days as they may respectively attend at the Alms House, in accordance with the rules of that institution, regulating the days on which visits shall be made. Compensation of trustees of poor

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said trustees of the poor shall be allowed respectively, one dollar per day, and five cents a mile, going to and from said institution, for such days as they may have attended at the Alms House, subsequently to the passage of the act to which this is a supplement. Retrospective operation

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the per diem allowance of grand and petit jurors to Baltimore county court, Jurors per diem