

CHAP. 181. CHAPTER 181.

Passed Feb. 27 1850. An act to authorise the laying out and opening of a Road through parts of Carroll and Baltimore Counties.

Commissioners appointed, etc. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Daniel Stull, and Jesse Brown of Carroll county, and Thomas Watts, of Baltimore county, be and are hereby appointed, and duly authorised as commissioners, to survey, lay out, and locate a public road, not exceeding thirty feet in width, commencing in Carroll county, at a point in the public road which leads from Brown's meeting house in Carroll county, to the Reisterstown and Hanover turnpike, near the Blue Ball tavern in Baltimore county, said point to be at or near the the mill of George Richards, junior, on Deep run, and running thence through the land of the said George Richards junior, to an old road on the south side of his mill race, thence running on and with the bed of said old road, or as near as practicable thereto, through the land of William I. Fowble, to an old road which runs through the lands of Jacob Hildebrand, and Aaron Stocksdale, and thence running on the bed of said old road last named, or as near thereto as most convenient over the lands of the said Hildebrand and Stocksdale, to a lane which lies between the lands of said Stocksdale and Jacob Miller, thence running with or near to said lane to another old road which runs over the lands of the said Aaron Stocksdale and Elisha Brown, and running thence therewith until it intersects the said turnpike road opposite to the dwelling house and present residence of the said Elisha Brown, in Baltimore county.

Duties of commissioners. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, or of their successors to be appointed as hereinafter mentioned, shall meet for the discharge of the duties enjoined upon them by this act, as soon as practicable after the passage hereof, at the place above designated for the commencement of said road, and after taking severally on oath, to be administered by some justice of the peace of Carroll county, to execute their said duties without favor, affection, or partiality, they shall proceed, together with a competent surveyor and other necessary agents, to be by them employed, to survey, lay out and locate said road, on the route designated as aforesaid, or as near as may be practicable thereto.
