

1849.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 183.

CHAPTER 182.

Passed Mar. 1, 1850. An act to make valid a deed from Norman B. Harding, to Alpheus W. Marriott.

Made valid

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
That the deed from Norman B. Harding, sheriff of Frederick county, to Alpheus W. Marriott, of said county, conveying two lots or portions of ground, being lots number one, and number two, being parts of a tract of land called "Tasken Chance" but more recently called "Loam" situated, lying and being on the Frederick and Baltimore turnpike at the west end of Fredericktown, and executed on the twenty-second day of November, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, be and the same is hereby declared to be valid and effectual in law, to pass the lots in said deed mentioned, as if the said lots had been the property of a naturalized citizen of the State of Maryland.

CHAPTER 183.

Passed Mar. 1, 1850. An act to render valid a Deed from Emanuel Easter, to Samuel P. Smith, of Allegany County.

Declared valid.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
That the clerk of Allegany county court, be and he is hereby authorised and directed, to receive from Samuel P. Smith, the trustee of Emanuel Easter, of Allegany county, under the Insolvent laws of Maryland, the usual cost of a stamp upon a deed of conveyance by said Insolvent to his said trustee, bearing date on the sixteenth day of February, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, and to endorse upon said deed a receipt for the same, and that thereupon the said deed shall be rendered as valid and operative in law, from the date thereof, as if the same had been duly stamped at the time of its execution.