

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1849.

CHAPTER 193. CHAP. 194.

An act for the relief of John C. Mitchell, of Allegany County. Passed Mar. 1, 1850.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the register of the land office for the western shore of Maryland, be and he is hereby authorised and directed to correct the course of the sixth line of a tract of land lying formerly in Frederick, but now in Allegany county, called "Love in a Village," as set forth in the patent for said tract, issued to David Mitchell on the thirtieth day of June, seventeen hundred and eighty-six, so that the course of the said line in said patent, may correspond truly with the sixth line in the certificate of survey of said tract filed by the said Mitchell, in the said land office, on the sixth day of May, seventeen hundred and seventy-six; pro-vided, nothing herein contained shall interfere with the rights of any other person or persons, acquired before or since the issuing of said patent.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said patent, when so corrected, shall have the same force and effect in law, as if the aforesaid error had not been committed in issuing the same.

CHAPTER 194.

An act to incorporate the National Fire Insurance Company of Baltimore. Passed Feb 18, 1850.

WHEREAS, The present and increasing trade and population of the City of Baltimore, and of the State of Maryland, seem to demand the organization of an Insurance Company against losses by fire in the city, and the several counties, and in the Howard District, and of vessels in the Harbor, which will afford an adequate security to the insured, as also a safe and good investment of capital to the stockholders thereof—
Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Pickell, Nicholas L. Wood, James Frazier, Joseph J. Speed, Job Smith, Z. Collins Lee, George E. Sangston, Samuel K. George,
