

CHAP. 205. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all bye-laws and ordinances passed by said commissioners, together with all their proceedings, shall be entered in a book, which they are hereby directed to keep for that purpose, and shall be open for the inspection of any person interested therein, and copies of all the ordinances and bye-laws shall be set up in the most public places in said village.

Times of meet- ing regulated. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to meet from time to time, and they, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised to pass such ordinances and bye-laws, for the proper regulation of said village, as to them may seem necessary; provided, the same be not repugnant to the laws of this State, to remove all nuisances and prevent all local causes of disease, to suppress and prevent all disorderly and riotous conduct, by fine and imprisonment in the county jail, and to compel each citizen and non-resident property holder in said village, to pay his or her rateable proportion of the expenses incurred in carrying into effect the said ordinances.

Proviso

Authority to enforce bye-laws

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That to enable the said commissioners to enforce the ordinances and bye-laws, they are hereby empowered to require the services of any constable within the election district, whose duty it shall be to enforce the ordinances and bye-laws of said commissioners when required, and who shall, for every neglect or refusal so to do, be subject to a fine of not less than one, nor more than five dollars, to be recovered in the name of said commissioners, before a justice of the peace of the county, as other small debts are recovered, and applied to the objects specified in the fifth section of this act, and said constable shall be entitled to receive, for his services, the same compensation as by law he is entitled to receive for similar, in other cases.

How penalties are recoverable

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all fines imposed under the ordinances and bye-laws, shall be recoverable in the name of said commissioners, before a justice of the peace of said county, as small debts are recovered, and the said commissioners shall not be entitled to charge or recover any compensation for their services.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That all acts, or parts of acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.