

CHAP. 213. each member to make good said loss to the person having sustained such loss, and to notify the members of the said corporation of the same, and if at the expiration of sixty days from the date of such notice, any member of said corporation shall have failed to pay his, her or their contribution aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said board of directors, upon filing such statement in the office of the clerk of Baltimore county, or with the clerk of such other county or district in which such defaulting member or members shall reside, to cause execution to issue for the said proportion, in the same manner as if a judgment had been rendered for the same, together with all costs incident to such proceedings.

Corporate powers.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have and is hereby invested with full power and authority to make any bye-law or bye-laws, whereby any member of the said company failing to pay the interest on his, her, or their premium note or notes, according to the constitution and bye-laws of the said company, may be excluded from all benefit of insurance, and at the same time held liable to contribution in case of loss by others, during all the time he, she, or they may be so in default, any law or statute of this State to the contrary thereof, in anywise notwithstanding.

May rescind policies

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have full power and authority to rescind or revoke any policy of insurance by them issued, whenever they shall deem it for the interest of said company so to do.

Applications to be made in writing

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That all applications for insurance in the Mutual Fire Insurance Company, in Baltimore county, shall be made in writing, and signed by the party or parties making such application, and that such signature shall be deemed a full assent to the charter, constitution, and bye-laws of said company.

Married women may insure with assent of husband

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That it may and shall be lawful for any married woman, with the assent of her husband, signified by his signature to the application for insurance, to apply for, and have insurance in said company, on the property of said married woman, and that the premium note given by such married woman and her husband, shall be a lien upon the real estate so insured, and shall be as binding and effectual upon such married woman as if she were sole and unmarried.