

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1849.

performance of any required duty under this act; the said surveyor shall perform all such further duties as are hereinafter imposed upon him. CHAP. 221.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the Board of Education shall meet at the court-house, in the town of Elkton, on the second Monday of September next after the passage of this act, for the purpose of receiving the report of the county surveyor, and shall proceed to examine and confirm the same, or take such action thereupon as may under the provisions of this act be required; any person or persons conceiving himself, themselves, or their neighborhoods aggrieved by any of the divisions made by, or any of the acts of the surveyor, may appeal to the Board of Education, setting forth in writing the grievance complained of and the particular modification desired, whereupon the Board of Education shall examine into the matter complained of, and if they deem it necessary or proper, may require the surveyor to re-examine the localities in question, and report whether the modification desired can be adopted without detriment to the public interest, and upon said report, the Board of Education shall determine the matter finally; when the surveyor's report of the division of the county into school districts shall have been examined and adopted, or modified and finally ratified and confirmed, it shall be distinctly made out by the surveyor, under the supervision of the Board of Education, and published in each of the newspapers published in the said county, and in handbills set up in at least two of the most public places in each of the said school districts.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the persons residing in the several school districts entitled to vote for delegates to the General Assembly, shall be deemed and considered school voters; that the board of education shall, within five days after the confirmation of the surveyor's report, proclaim a school election, giving at least three weeks notice, by advertisement inserted in each of the newspapers printed in the said county, and in hand bills set up in at least three of the most public places in each of the said school districts, of the time and the place in each school district at which said election shall be held; at which said time, and at the places in the several school districts so named, the school voters of the said county shall assemble in their respective districts, and when so assembled, shall appoint a chairman and secretary, who shall also be judge and clerk of the election, and said voters shall proceed to elect, by ballot, three school Superintendent for the whole county, and 8 trustees for every school district to be elected by people.