

CHAP. 221. of school elections, reports of school districts, and all the papers of the board of education connected with the school system, proper to be filed and preserved, and shall file the same, and shall enter in a book to be kept by him for this purpose, a memorandum, index, or record thereof; he shall be ex-officio treasurer of the county school funds; shall receive from the orphans court of the county all monies and evidences of debts, bonds, mortgages, certificates of stock, books, papers, and accounts, in the hands of the said orphans court, or of any of the officers thereof, belonging to the existing poor school fund of the county, excepting so much of the current fund in the hands of their treasurer as may be necessary to meet the regular demands upon it, for the tuition of poor children, until the system to be established by this act shall go into operation; he shall also receive from the treasurer of the State all contributions or monies which may, from time to time, be made or become due to Cecil county, for and on account of the school fund of the State; he shall also receive from the collector or collectors of county taxes, all monies or taxes levied by the commissioners of the said county, and collected under the authority of this act, for school purposes, and he shall disburse the said monies, taxes, and so forth, to the order of the board of education, or of any board of trustees, as the case may be, in the manner hereinafter specified; as treasurer, he shall keep his books and accounts regularly posted up every month, and always open to the inspection of the board of education, or of any of the district trustees; he shall open an account with every school district in the county, crediting each district with its annual allowance from the county funds, and charging each order that may be accepted and paid on district account; he shall annually enter into a bond to the State of Maryland, with not less than four securities, and in a penalty of not less than twenty-five thousand, nor more than forty thousand dollars, to be prescribed and approved by the orphans court of the said county, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties imposed upon him as superintendent of common schools in Cecil county, and for the safekeeping and faithful distribution of all monies intrusted to his charge, as treasurer of the said school fund; he shall, also, before entering upon the duties of his said office, take and subscribe, before some justice of the peace of the said county, the following oath or affirmation: I, A B, do swear, or solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm, that as super-

To give bond

Oath required