

CHAP. 221. children, until the schools to be provided for in this act, are established and opened; and all certificates of stock or State bonds and individual bonds and mortgages, or other evidences of debt, remaining in their hands, not due or in course of collection, for and on account of said fund, and also all books, papers, records, and accounts in their possession, or in the possession of any officer of the said court, appertaining to the said fund, its investment, apportionment, receipt, and disbursement; that the said justices of the Orphans court of the said county, be and they are hereby authorised, required, and directed to assign the several bonds and mortgages which may be then held by them, not due or in course of collection, for and on account of the said poor school fund of the said county to the said superintendent, which assignment shall be in writing, and signed by at least two of the said justices, and attested by the register of wills, under the seal of the said Orphans court, and may be in the following form, namely: for and in consideration of the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, an act to establish a system of common schools in Cecil county, and to provide for the support of the same; and in compliance with the requirements thereof, and for and in consideration of the sum of five dollars, to us in hand paid by A B, who has been duly elected superintendent of common schools in Cecil county, in accordance with the provisions of the said act of Assembly, we the undersigned, justices of the Orphans court of Cecil county, do hereby assign, transfer, and make over to the said superintendent, all the right, title, interest, and claim of the said Orphans court, in and to the within bond, and the mortgage executed to secure the same, which said assignment or transfer shall be endorsed upon, or annexed to each of the said bonds, and when so made and attested, shall vest in the said superintendent and his successors in office, full power and authority to receive from the obligors and mortgagors in said bonds and mortgages, and hold for the purposes of this act the monies thereby secured; and with full power and authority under and by the direction of the board of education, to be certified by a resolution of the said board, entered upon their minutes, to institute a suit or suits in his own name, as superintendent of common schools in said county, for the recovery of said money, or to transfer and release the said bonds and mortgages according to law; and the said justices of the Orphans court of the said county are also hereby re-

Form of assignment.