

CHAP. 221. of to be made by their clerk; provided, that where the dwelling of any person stands within a district which does not include the whole of the land attached to said dwelling, the whole of the said land shall be assessed in the district in which the dwelling stands, and upon the said assessment, the said trustees shall levy such a rate of tax as shall be necessary to raise the sum determined upon, and the cost of collecting the same, and shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the collectors of the said districts, duplicates of the said assessments with the rate of tax specified thereon, within thirty days from the day of the said annual meeting, at which the said sum to be raised shall be determined upon.

Collector—his powers and duties

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That every district tax collector shall give bond to the trustees of their respective districts, with security to be prescribed and approved by the said trustees, for the faithful collection and payment over of the said district tax, and that immediately upon the receipt of his duplicate, he shall proceed to collect said tax, and shall pay it over to the district trustees in quarterly payments, and the said district tax collector shall have and exercise within his district all the powers and rights to enforce the payment of said tax, which the collectors of State and county taxes now have in this State within their respective districts, and the trustees of each school district shall have within their respective districts, for the purpose of enforcing the payment of the district tax, all such rights and powers as are now held and exercised in this respect by the commissioners of the said county in relation to State and county taxes; provided however, that if the trustees of any or either of the school districts can raise the required sum, or the sum determined upon by the school voters at their said first stated meeting, by voluntary contribution, within twenty days from the said stated meeting, it shall not be necessary to enforce the payment of the said tax.

When to be paid allowance of $200

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That whenever a district has raised the required sum of fifty dollars, or such additional sum as the voters may at their said first stated meeting determine upon, the trustees of the said district shall report the same to the board of education, who shall thereupon order and direct the superintendent and treasurer, to appropriate to the said district, the sum of two hundred dollars, to be paid to the said trustees or upon their order, to the teacher or teachers in said district school, in equal quarterly instalments; provided, that the said district school shall be kept open during the entire year, or with short vacations only for the re-

Provisoes