

own knowledge, or from the best information he can obtain, value such person's salary, emoluments, income, wages, pay, profit, or advantage, to the full amount of what he believes the same to be worth, and if any person shall give a false or partial account of his said salary, emoluments, income, wages, pay, profit, or advantage, with intent to defraud, such person shall forfeit and pay a fine of ten dollars, to be recovered by the surveyor, before a single justice of the peace, and paid over to the superintendent, when duly elected and qualified for school purposes.

SEC. 22. And be it enacted, That the said surveyor shall complete his said assessment, on or before the second Monday of September next ensuing the date of the passage of this act, and shall on that day make return and deliver to the board of education a certificate, or statement in writing, designating in alphabetical order, the names of the persons whose offices, professions or occupations he has assessed, and the amount of the salary, emoluments, income, wages, pay, profits or advantage he has assessed to each, and also the number of children between the ages of six and twenty years, which each person so assessed has residing in the said county not bound out to service or indentured as apprentices in said county, and also designating the election district in which each person so assessed resides.

SEC. 23. And be it enacted, That the said surveyor shall at the same time make return, and deliver to the board of education a statement in writing, designating in alphabetical order, the names of all merchants, mechanics, manufacturers, farmers, sailors, and other persons doing business in the said county in any of the various departments of labor, to whom any child or children between the said ages of six and twenty years are bound out to service or indentured as apprentices, with the name or names, and the number of the children so indentured or bound to each.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That the board of education, at their meeting on the said second Monday in September next after the passage of this act, required by the third section of this act, shall receive the returns of the assessment and the statements of the said surveyor, as required by the two last sections, and shall proceed to consider and examine the same, and if any person assessed by the said surveyor, or any master of apprentices, reported by said surveyor, as liable to the taxes provided for in this act, shall feel himself aggrieved by any of the acts of the said surveyor in making his said assessment or returns of children and

CHAP. 221.

When duties are to be completed

Surveyor to return an alphabetical list

Board of Education—certain duties prescribed