

CHAP. 221. to admit into any of the said schools any negro or mulatto child, or the child of any negro or mulatto person of any degree, or any white child or person who is not a bona fide resident of the said county.

Taxes to be levied on bona fide residents only

SEC. 31. And be it enacted, That the taxes provided for and to be levied under the provisions of the seventeenth, eighteenth, and nineteenth sections of this act, shall not be assessed to or levied upon any person who is not a bona fide resident of the said county, nor upon any negro or mulatto of any degree, nor shall any master of apprentices be assessed for or required to pay said taxes upon any negro or mulatto apprentice of any degree.

Master and apprentice

SEC. 32. And be it enacted, That every master of apprentices, and every other person in said county, to whom any white child, between the said ages of six and twenty years shall be bound out to service, shall be required to send each and every such white child so bound to him or them to the district school of the district in which such master shall reside, at least one month in every year, or for such a length of time during the said child's apprenticeship, as shall, in the aggregate amount to the same as one month in every year of such apprenticeship; and if any such master shall refuse or neglect to comply with the requisitions of this act in this behalf, it shall and may be lawful for any such child or apprentice, upon his or her arrival at full age, or for the next friend of any such child or apprentice during his or her minority, to institute an action in the county court of said county, giving this act in evidence against such master or his representatives, to recover damages for the violation or neglect of the provisions of this act, and the said county court shall have and exercise jurisdiction of each and every such case as shall come before it, and shall render such judgment therein, as may be just and proper according to law.

Illegal voting, penalty

SEC. 33. And be it enacted, That if any person not a legal voter in the said county, shall vote, or offer to vote at any of the elections provided for by this act, he shall be liable to all the pains and penalties under existing laws in this State, against illegal voting.

Commissioners to levy.

SEC. 34. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of the said county, at the time of making their annual levy in the month of August, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, and annually thereafter, shall levy upon the assessable property of the said county such a rate of tax as shall be necessary to make up any deficiency or difference that exist between the amount of money