

raised from the taxes levied under the seventeenth, CHAP. 221: eighteenth, and nineteenth sections of this act, and the annual contribution from the State, and the amount that may be necessary to pay to each school district in said county, for the support of its school, the sum of two hundred dollars, and the salary of the superintendent, as herein provided for; and the collectors of county taxes in said county are hereby required to collect said tax, and pay over the same to the superintendent and treasurer, in four equal quarterly payments, on the first days of February, May, August, and November, annually, and in case of failure on the part of either of said collectors to make such quarterly payments, the same proceedings shall be had against said defaulting collector and his sureties, as are prescribed in the twenty-fourth section of this act.

SEC. 35. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of the said county may allow their clerk, and the collectors of county and State taxes, such additional compensation as may be proper in consideration of the additional duties imposed upon them by this act, and all expenses incurred or to be incurred under the provisions of this act, shall be levied for and paid as all other county charges, and for the purpose of providing a fund to meet the expense of laying off the county into school districts, and the first assessment of salaries and incomes as herein required; and the examination and adjustment of the same, the commissioners of the said county are hereby authorized, required and directed to levy upon the assessable property of said county, the sum of three hundred dollars, to be paid to the said county surveyor and his deputies, and the members of the board of education, according to such accounts as they may exhibit to the commissioners, of the time they may have been respectively engaged in the discharge of any duty imposed upon them by this act, the balance, if any, which may be due to said surveyor or his deputies, or the members of the board of education, to be provided for in the next annual levy.

SEC. 36. And be it enacted, That on the second Wednesday in May next, when the voters of the said county shall assemble in their respective election districts to vote for or against the adoption of the act of this General Assembly, calling a convention to reform the constitution of this State, it shall be the duty of the judges of said election, in each of the said election districts, and they are hereby required, to inquire
