

CHAP. 222. of every legal voter, as he deposits his ballot for or against the convention, whether he is for or against the establishment of common schools in said county, as provided for by this act, and the said judges shall record the number of votes so taken for and against common schools, as provided for under this act, and shall make immediate return thereof, under their hands and seals, to the clerk of the said county, who shall receive said returns and shall ascertain the number of votes thus cast for and against said schools, in the whole county, and when ascertained, shall cause the same to be published in both the papers printed in said county, and if a majority of the votes thus taken in the said county shall be in favor of the schools to be established by this act, then and in that case, this act shall go into immediate operation, otherwise this act shall be of no effect whatever; provided, that the judges of the said election shall not record the vote of any person for or against this said act, who does not give a distinct affirmative or negative answer to the said enquiry.

Proviso,

Act to be published

SEC. 37. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of the commissioners of the said county to procure a copy of this act, and to cause the same to be published in both the newspapers printed in said county, once a week for at least one month previous to the said second Wednesday in May next, and that all expenses attending said publication shall be paid as other county charges.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

SEC. 38. And be it enacted, That all existing acts of Assembly, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, to take effect from and after the time that this act shall go into operation.

CHAPTER 222.

Passed Feb 27, 1850, An act to Incorporate the Brown Mutual Insurance Company of Baltimore.

Incorporated, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Herman H. Perry, George A. V. Spreckelson, Henry S. Garrett, Enoch Pratt, Parick Henry Sullivan, George Somerville Norris, James H. Carter, William Schair, Thomas Wilson, A. B. David-