

PHILIP F. THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR. 1849.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect and be in force from the date of its passage. CHAP. 38.
In force.

CHAPTER 37.

A supplement to an act entitled, an act to authorise executors and administrators to convey real estate in certain cases. Passed Jan 29, 1850.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the provisions of the act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter two hundred and seventy-nine, be and the same are hereby extended to all cases where letters testamentary, or of administration, may have been, or may hereafter be granted by the proper authority, in the District of Columbia, to the executor or executors, administrator or administrators, from whom the deed may be required in virtue of this supplement; and provided, the application contemplated by the said original act, to procure a deed or conveyance, be made to the Orphans court of the city or county where the land so sought to be conveyed is situate. Act extended, Presumptio.
Bank revised.
Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 38.

An act to provide for the admission of printed statutes of the Congress of the United States, as evidence in the courts of this State. Passed Jan 29, 1850.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all trials, at law or in equity, and in all controversies depending in any of the Orphans courts of this State, or before a justice of the peace of this State, it shall and may be competent for either party to read in evidence the public or private statutes of the Congress of the United States, from any printed volume purporting to contain the statutes of said May read in evidence.