

1849.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 255.

CHAPTER 254.

Passed Mar. 4, 1850
A supplement to an act to incorporate a Company to make a Turnpike Road in Washington county, commencing at the forks of the Hagerstown and Leitersburg Turnpike Road, in Washington county, leading to the Pennsylvania line, passed December Session, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, chapter one hundred and sixty.

Time extended for receiving subscriptions

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Richard Ragan, junior, Jacob B. Layman, F. C. B. Willams, David Brambough, junior, Daniel Miller, Peter Eshelman, and Washington Berry, commissioners named in the original act to which this is a supplement, be and they are hereby allowed until the first day of August, eighteen hundred and fifty, to open books for subscription to the capital stock of said company, they having neglected to receive subscription, as provided for in the second section of the act to which this is a supplement.

CHAPTER 255.

Passed Feb 23
1850.

Preamble.

An act to make valid a Deed therein mentioned.

WHEREAS, It has been represented to the General Assembly of Maryland, that a certain deed for the conveyance of certain land, in Cecil county, to James Kirkpatrick, bearing date on the twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand, eight hundred and forty-one, and executed and acknowledged by William Hines, and Rachel Hines, his wife, and another, has not been certified by the justices of the peace before whom the same was so executed and acknowledged, to have been signed and sealed by the said Rachel Hines, before them, out of the presence and hearing of her husband, although the same was in fact so signed and sealed, or that they, the said justices, were satisfied, either of their own knowledge, or by oral testimony, under oath, that the grantors in said deed were the persons named and described as, and professing to be, the parties thereto, although such proof