

1849.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 258. have power to declare the stock of such delinquent stockholder, subscriber or owner, forfeited, and it shall thereupon be forfeited and vest in, and be the property of said company, and may be sold by the president and directors thereof, for the benefit of said company.

Banking forbid SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed, as to authorise the aforesaid company to make, issue or put into circulation any negotiable note or notes, payable to bearer, or any note or notes in the nature of a bank note.

Responsibility of members SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the stockholders of said company, as such, shall not be individually responsible for the debts, dues, contracts, obligations or undertakings of said company or any of them, unless fraud can be proved on the part of the stockholders sought to be charged, but any director or directors of said company, who shall consent to, or connive at the contraction of any debt, or to any further operation of said company, except such operations as may be necessary towards winding up its concerns, after the said company shall have contracted debts to double the amount of the capital stock paid in, and the property and credits thereof, shall be deemed guilty of fraud, and shall be held answerable individually in person and estate, for all and any of the debts and undertakings of said company.

In force. SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the charter of said company as amended, shall be and continue in force for thirty years after the passage of this act; provided, the Legislature shall have the right at all times to repeal, abrogate and annul the same.

Proviso

CHAPTER 258.

Passed
Feb. 26, 1850.

An act to Incorporate the Horeb Cemetery of Cumberland.

Incorporated,
&c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Price, Samuel M. Semmes, Thomas Shriver, Thomas J. McKaig, Thomas Perry, Henry Browne, and W. Thurston, of the city of Cumberland, and their successors, be and they are hereby created a body politic, by the name and title of the Horeb Cemetery, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall be able and liable to sue and be