

CHAP. 309. of this act, shall proceed to act under its provisions, unless he take and subscribe, in the presence of some justice of the peace, the following oath: I do solemnly swear, or affirm, as the case may be, that in all things, to the best of my ability, I will perform the trust reposed in me by this act, which said oath shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk, and shall give bond, in the penalty of five hundred dollars, for the faithful and honest administration of the school funds, and all other funds applicable to the purposes of education, in and for Carroll county, and coming into their hands; And it is further enacted, that each of said school commissioners shall receive, for every day he shall be actually employed under the provisions of this act, the sum of one dollar and fifty cents, to be paid out of the school fund of said county.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That no part of said school fund now in hand, nor any other funds applicable to the purpose of education in primary schools in Carroll county, shall be applied to the building of school houses, and that taxation for the purpose of education is hereby prohibited in said county.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That this act shall be published once a week, for four weeks next preceding the next gubernatorial election, in at least two newspapers in Carroll county, and unless it be confirmed by a majority of the legal voters of said county, at said election, cast for or against said act, it shall be null and void, and the legal voters of said county are hereby requested to answer yes or no, when they come to the polls, to the question, are you for or against an act to establish primary schools in Carroll county, and it is hereby made the duty of the judges of elections to put said question, and to count the votes for and against said act, and to make return thereof to the county clerk, whose duty it shall be, if a majority of votes are cast in favor of said act, within one week thereafter, to give public notice through said newspapers, that an election will be held on the first Wednesday of June, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, at the usual places of holding elections in said county, for the election of said commissioners of primary schools.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That not less than a majority of the school commissioners, to be elected under the provisions of this act, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and that the said board of school commissioners shall have power to make by-laws for their own government; provided, they do not

Compensation

Taxation for school purposes prohibited

To be submitted to people

Quorum

Proviso