

CHAP. 323. condemn a lot of ground in the vicinity of said town, not to exceed one acre of land, for the exclusive use and benefit of the said corporation of said town, and the inhabitants thereof; provided, that such survey shall not interfere with the yards, garden, orchards, or buildings of any person, without their consent.

Expenses— SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the commissioners named in the third section of this act, shall value and assess the damages sustained by any person or persons whose land may be affected by the aforesaid survey, location, and condemnation, and the damages so assessed, together with all the necessary expenses, shall be returned by the said commissioners to the commissioners of said corporation, and the said corporation shall pay the amount of damages and expenses incurred under this act to the person or persons entitled thereto.

To cause plat SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners appointed under the third section of this act, shall cause to be made out a plot of the lot of ground as aforesaid surveyed, located, and condemned, to be lodged in the clerk's office of Dorchester county, there to remain in perpetual testimony of the aforesaid survey, location, and condemnation.

CHAPTER 323.

Passed Feb. 28 An act entitled, a supplement to an act passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter one hundred and twenty-six, entitled, an act authorising the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the city and precincts of Baltimore, to hold certain lands as a Burial Ground.
1850.

Preamble. WHEREAS, The trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the city and precincts of Baltimore, a corporation duly incorporated according to law, acting under the authority of the act to which this is a supplement, have purchased a tract of land on the Frederick Turnpike Road, containing about thirty-three acres, and have dedicated the same to the purposes of sepulture, under the name of Mount Olivet Cemetery; and whereas, it is reasonable and necessary that said corporation should have the powers and privileges requisite for the uninterrupted, permanent, and sacred