

CHAP. 324. or execution, nor be liable to be sold for the debts of any deceased person, who may have owned such lot during his lifetime.

Ownership regulated.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That a certificate, under seal of said corporation, of the ownership of any lot aforesaid, shall, in all respects, have the same effect as any conveyance of such lot would have, if executed, acknowledged, and recorded as conveyances of real estate are required to be by the laws of the State of Maryland.

CHAPTER 324.

Passed
Feb. 27, 1850

An act authorising Commissioners to establish a Public Road in the Second District of Cecil county.

Commissioners to locate public road

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Lambert D. Nowland, George W. Bennett, and Benjamin F. Sluyter, of the second election district in Cecil county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they, or any two of them, shall have power to enter upon, survey, lay off, and locate a road from some convenient and proper point on the main road in said district, known and designated as the Poplar Stump Road, through the lands of Richard H. Bayard, Richard Biddle, Ann Oldham, and the late Richard Hudson, so as to intersect the main road leading from Bohemia Church to the Bohemia Ferry, at or near Hudson's Corner, in said district, and in locating said road, they shall, in their discretion, take the most practicable route, said road not to exceed thirty feet in width.

Damages, etc

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or any two of them, shall have power to value and condemn the lands over which they may locate said road, and to cause the same to be surveyed, and a plat thereof, and the valuation and condemnation of the lands, as aforesaid, and the expenses attending the execution of this act, to be returned to the commissioners of Cecil county, to be recorded among the records of the said commissioner's court, and if the landholders through which this road may pass, shall not be satisfied with the damages assessed by the commissioners appointed by this act, they shall have power to have the same assessed, as provided by the