

CHAP. 339. at which all persons qualified as specified in the second section of this act shall be entitled to vote.

Failure to elect commissioners not to dissolve corporation

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That should the inhabitants at any time neglect to make an election at the times required by this act, the power of electing of commissioners shall not, therefore, cease, but the right and power of said inhabitants of said village, in that respect, shall continue the same as though such election had been made, and the president and commissioners, for the time being, shall continue and remain in office, with like power and authority, until such election shall be held as aforesaid,

Boundaries to be fixed

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the limits of the village of Northeast shall be established, marked and bounded by the commissioners first elected, as soon after their election as may be practicable, and recorded among their proceedings.

To appoint a clerk

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint a clerk, and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper, and that all ordinances passed by the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall, by their clerk, be entered in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up in the most public places of said village, that the same may be generally known.

To regulate wharves, etc.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power and authority to determine upon and regulate all matters relating to the erecting or building of wharfs in the said village, to regulate the moving of rafts, arks and boats, and to prevent all nuisances and obstructions from being placed on the waters of the said Northeast river, in front of said village.

Authorised to levy and collect taxes

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have full power and authority to levy and collect taxes in said village, not exceeding in any one year thirty cents in the hundred dollars, on the assessable property of said village, and for the purpose of making said levy, they shall once in every three years, or oftener if they think proper, appoint an assessor, who shall, under oath, value, appraise and assess the property in said village, in the same manner and with like authority as county assessors proceed to assess in the county; provided always, that in assessing any of the lands within the limits of said village, which may be occupied and used as farms,
