

clerk's office of Worcester county, within three months CHAP. 377.
after the passage of this act.

CHAPTER 377.

An act to incorporate a Company to make a Turnpike Road from Williamsport, in Washington County, to the Pennsylvania Line, in the direction of Greencastle, in Franklin county, State of Pennsylvania. passed March 6, 1850.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a company be and is hereby incorporated to make a turnpike road, in Washington county, to be located as far as practicable upon the bed of the county road running from Williamsport to Greencastle, until it intersects the Pennsylvania line, to be constructed of stone, gravel or plank, and to be located, graded and constructed under the direction of the president and board of managers, to be chosen under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2 And be it enacted, That subscription books be opened for a capital stock, not to exceed thirty thousand dollars, in shares of twenty dollars each, and that subscriptions be taken at such times and places as the commissioners named in this act may select and agree upon, until a sufficient amount of stock shall have been subscribed to complete the said road; provided, that due notice shall have been given in one or more newspapers published in said county, of the time and place of the opening of the subscription books.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That Joseph T. Van Lear, Abraham Leiter, Isaac Motter, Martin Bear, Daniel Dunn, David Newcomer, Jacob Funk, David Zellar, John Cunningham, and Abraham Felker, or any three of them, shall constitute a board of commissioners to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, who shall, whenever in their judgment, a sufficient amount of stock shall have been subscribed, give notice to the subscribers that an election will be held for a president, five managers, treasurer, and such other officers as may be deemed necessary to conduct the business of said corporation, and upon such notice,