CHAP. 62.   CHAPTER 62.

Passed Feb. 4, 1850.   An act to allow Benjamin Swingley, former Collector of Taxes in Washington County, further time to complete his collections.

Time allowed.   SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Benjamin Swingley, late collector of State and county taxes, for the year eighteen hundred and forty-three, and county taxes for the year eighteen hundred and forty-four, in Washington county, be and he, or his agent, or attornies, are hereby authorised to collect any and all taxes, or balances of taxes, due him or them, and now remaining uncollected for the several years in which he was collector of the taxes in said county, in the same manner and with the same privileges and powers he could or might have done within the time allowed by law.

In force.   SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the authority hereby given, shall continue until the first day of June, eighteen hundred and fifty-two.

Affidavit to bar claim.   SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person, against whom there is a claim presented by the said Benjamin Swingley, shall make affidavit, before any justice of the peace for said county, that he or she hath paid the same, it shall forever bar such claim.

Not to affect   SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said Benjamin Swingley have no power, under this act, to enforce the collection of any taxes against any real or personal property, which may have been conveyed or transferred since said taxes shall have accrued and become due ; and provided further, that before the Proviso.   said Benjamin Swingley shall proceed to collect taxes under the powers given to him in the first section of this act, he shall attach to each account for such taxes, an affidavit that the amount is due and unpaid, and that he has received no security or other satisfaction for the same.

Now in force.   SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect and be in force from the date of its passage.