

CHAP. 388. CHAPTER 387.

Passed Mar. 4, 1850. An act for the benefit of Achsah D. Warfield.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented by the petition of Achsah D. Warfield, of Howard district, that she intermarried with Reuben Warfield, on the second day of December, eighteen hundred and forty three, being then in possession of a negro slave named Mary Ellen, which, to secure to her the advantage and protection of the act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-two, chapter two hundred and ninety-three, should have been recorded, and so forth, and praying that an act may pass to enable her to hold and dispose of the said girl in the same manner as if the record had been made.—Therefore,

Act of 1842, ch. 293. extended

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all the rights, securities and advantages of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-two, chapter two hundred and ninety-three, be and the same are hereby extended to said Achsah D. Warfield, as fully and absolutely as if the record had been made at the time of her marriage; provided however, that said Achsah D. Warfield, cause such record as is required by the seventh section of said act, to be made within thirty days from the passage this act; provided, that nothing in this act shall be so construed as affect the legal rights of any creditor of said Achsah D. Warfield, or of her husband Reuben Warfield.
