

1849.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 65.

CHAPTER 64.

Passed Feb. 2, 1850. An act entitled, an act to divorce Augusta M. Taylor, of the City of Baltimore, from her husband, Marcellus K. Taylor.

Divorced. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Augusta M. Taylor, of the city of Baltimore, be and she is hereby divorced from her husband, Marcellus K. Taylor, a vinculo matrimonii.

CHAPTER 65.

Passed Jan. 30, 1850. An act entitled, an act empowering the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to alter certain Alleys and Streets on Whetstone Point.

May reduce width of certain streets, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore be and they are hereby authorised to reduce in width any or all of the Streets in said city, on Whetstone Point, from Webster Street to Fort McHenry, as now laid out, and to increase in width any or all of the alleys corresponding thereto, or to close up any or all of said alleys, and to run the same at right angles with their present location, from any such points, and for any such distances as they may deem most advisable, and to locate either so as to conform to the rail road locations of these streets.

Notice to be given.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That before the said Mayor and City Council shall pass any ordinance on this subject, all the proceedings, by notice and otherwise, shall have been complied with, which are required by the general law, preparatory to the opening of streets, under the authority of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.