

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of tax of said county, shall levy a sum or sums of money upon the taxable property of the said county, sufficient to defray all said expenses, and to pay to the owners of said lands the amount awarded to them respectively, by said commissioners, or by the county court, in case of an appeal, and from and after the return made by the commissioners, or a majority of them, the road that they may locate as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as a public road, and kept at the expense of the county.

CHAP. 405.
Expenses—
how paid

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, before entering on their duties, shall take an oath that they will faithfully execute the provisions of this act, without partiality or prejudice, and shall be entitled to receive two dollars for every day that they may attend in the execution of this act, and shall give by public advertisement, at least twenty days notice before they proceed to locate said road.

Oath required

CHAPTER 405.

An act relating to the Trustees of the Poor, of Harford County. Passed March 8, 1850.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of the poor, of Harford county, be and the same are hereby abolished, and that from and after the passage of this act, all the powers, privileges, property and rights of the trustees of the poor, of Harford county, shall be and are hereby vested in the commissioners of Harford county.

Trustees of the poor abolished

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of Harford county, shall hereafter perform all the duties, and be subject to all the liabilities heretofore required of, or imposed by law, on the trustees of the poor, of Harford county.

Duties and liabilities of commissioners

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of Harford county, shall annually in the month of March, appoint a fit and competent person to be overseer of the poor, of Harford county, which said overseer shall have charge and custody of the lands, goods and chattels, heretofore vested in the trustees

To appoint an overseer