

CHAP. 416. judgments rendered by any justice of the peace in and for Somerset county, when said judgments shall be for sums of fifty dollars or upwards, shall be a lien on all lands and real estate of the defendant, lying in said county, to all intents and purposes, as much as if said judgment had been rendered in the county court, from the time when a short copy of such judgment shall have been filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of said county, and not before, from which record the said clerk shall keep a separate record book, with an index stating doubly the names of the plaintiff and defendant, and the said clerk shall receive for filing, recording and indexing every such copy of a judgment, the sum of twenty-five cents, and no more, and it shall be lawful for the said clerk, on the application of the plaintiff, to issue execution thereon, directed to the sheriff, and returnable before the county court, in the same manner as if the said judgment had been obtained in the said county court, and shall receive his usual fees for such service.

CHAPTER 416.

Passed An act entitled, an act to Incorporate the Smithsburg and Beaver Creek Turnpike Road Company.
Mar. 6, 1850.

To make turnpike road SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a company be incorporated to make a turnpike road from the point where the present county road, leading from Waynsboro', Pennsylvania, intersects the National turnpike road, near the town of Boonsboro', Maryland, following and being the bed of said road, as far as may be practicable, passing through the village of Mount Pleasant, and thence through Cavetown, thence through Water street, in Smithsburg, thence through the town of Ridgeville, thence to the Pennsylvania line, at the place where the county road now enters said State.

Commissioners to receive subscriptions SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That for making said road, subscription books for a capital stock of thirty thousand dollars, in fifteen hundred shares, at twenty dollars each, be opened in Smithsburg and Boonsboro', by or under the direction of all or any of the following commissioners, namely: Jacob Martin, Henry Fishack, Joseph Garver, Abraham Stouffer, of C., John Horine,