CHAPTER 458.

Passed Mar. 5, 1850. A bill entitled. an act to Incorporate the Proprietors of Mount Clare Cemetery.

Preamble. WHEREAS, public sentiment has always been opposed to the interment of the dead among the abodes of the living, for very obvious reasons, and that it is at all times desirable to have public burial grounds, subject to such laws, rules and regulations as will ensure to the living the continual protection of the remains of their dead, and a decent preservation of the grounds, by securing them in perpetuity to their object of dedication; and whereas, several citizens of this State are desirous
