

CHAPTER 459.

CHAP. 460.

An act to divorce Curtis Andrew, of Caroline County, from his wife Mary Jane Andrew. Passed Mar. 9, 1850.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Curtis Andrew, of Caroline county, be and he is hereby divorced from his wife, Mary Jane Andrew, a vinculo matrimonii.

CHAPTER 460.

An act to enlarge the powers of the President and Managers of the Baltimore and Fredericktown Turnpike Road, and to enlarge the powers of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of Frederick, and to confirm and make valid a certain deed and agreement herein referred to. Passed Mar. 8, 1850.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, by the memorial of the President and Managers of the Baltimore and Fredericktown Turnpike Road, and the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of Frederick, that an enlargement of their respective powers is necessary to enable them to make and fully carry out certain arrangements and agreements already made, and that may hereafter be made, by and between said corporations, in relation to that part of said turnpike road which runs through Patrick street, in Fredericktown, and the bridge or bridges on the same erected; and whereas, it is also represented, that a certain arrangement has already been entered into by and between the said corporations, in reference to the bridge on West Patrick street, in said town, and a small part of said road connected with said bridge, and a deed executed by said Turnpike Company, to said Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, in pursuance of said arrangements, and an agreement on the part of said Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, inserted in said deed, binding them to the performance of certain duties in relation to said road and bridge, so conveyed to them—Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the President and Managers of the Preamble.

To cede portion of road, etc